My memories of Deloris Smith, Jay, her husband and Steve, her son are abundant because we were neighbors, went to church together, and went on vacations and camp outs together.

The best memories are from church. She was an astounding teacher and motivator of children. At the Nowata First Church of God in Nowata, she taught Primary groups in Sunday school classes in 1956-1962.

She and her many assistants helped and influenced her classes in many ways.

1. To motivate attendance and Bible memorization she offered to take the class on a passenger train ride from Coffeyville, Kansas to Nowata.
2. She taught us songs to help us remember the books of the Bible
3. To teach of the Resurrection of Christ, she transformed our basement classroom into a life sized tomb from where Jesus was risen

At my recent 50th high school class reunion, several of her "kids" discussed these and many other things she did for us.

Later in life, Deloris was a faithful and loyal caregiver for Jay and Steve.

Now when I close my eyes and think of her, I can see her peacefully in the arms of Jesus.

Deloris, you will be in my heart forever.
