Abbie Lucille (Ross) Woody passed away peacefully in Ponca City on January 3, 2021 at the age of 95.

Abbie and her twin sister, Irbie, were born on a farm in Jewell County KS to Irving Ross and Opal (Lawrence) Ross. Brothers Lavern and Dickie soon followed. Their parents separated and, at the tender age of 10, the girls rode a bus to Bartlesville OK to live with their mother.

Abbie married Pvt John Woody during WWII and John soon left with the army for North Carolina. Abbie followed him by train and stayed with him until he shipped out to Europe. She had a sad trip home by herself but did her part for the war effort by riding to Pawhuska every day in the back of a truck with other women to make army tents in a factory set up there.

After the war the couple settled in Dewey where they lived all their married life except for 2 years when they lived in Independence KS with their oldest son while John got an Associates degree and played football for the college. Moving back to Dewey, they raised their family and enjoyed square dancing, two-stepping to Bob Wills, and attending the Dewey Rodeo. Abbie learned to cook from her sister-in-law, Ellen Fair, and truly took it to an art with her noodles, fried chicken, and sweets! Abbie liked playing and winning at cards, particularly double solitaire, and doing crossword puzzles. She also enjoyed reading, crocheting, and attending all the kids' and grandkids' sports and school events. Later in life, she loved spending time with her grandchildren and was always willing to help take care of them.

Abbie is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, John, two brothers, Lavern and Richard (Dickie) Lawrence, grandson Jered John Woody, and two great-grandsons, Trenton and Timothy.

She is survived by three sons; Johnny (Betty) Woody of Ponca City, Roger Woody of Dewey, and Steve Woody (Terri Peevey, dec) of Glenpool; one daughter Tabbetha (Jeff) LaPanta of Faribault, MN; her twin sister Irbbie Sykes of Elizabethtown, KY; eight grandchildren, Emily Rose (Chris) Greenhagen, Angie Beth (Alex) Koumaris, Bryan Scott Heitman, Jason Lee Woody, Christina (Ray) Hynes, Maddie Nicole LaPanta, Luke Gregory LaPanta, and Benjamin Ross LaPanta; eight great grandchildren, Faith (Robert) Lovitt, Nathan, Seth, Cecil, Mila Rose, Sylar, Bella, and Benjamin; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Abbie's family will receive friends at the Davis Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel, 918-534-3030, 113 S Osage (Hwy 75) Dewey on Saturday, Jan 9th from 11-12 a.m. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Agape Mission, 555 S Cass, Bartlesville, OK 74003 or to Infants Remembered in Silence (IRIS) at irisRemembers.com

Graveside services will be held on Saturday, Jan 9th at 2 p.m. followed by interment in the Dewey Cemetery with Pastor Adam Phillips officiating. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home-Dewey Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com

“ Abbie’s home was a second home for me growing up and I cherish the memories made there with her, John and Tabb. Abbie fed us lots of healthy homemade meals, orange juice and vitamins! I remember many conversations where she challenged our thinking and hoped we would consider many things in life more deeply. She was a big part of my growing up and I loved her and her family for being my home away from home. ❤️
