Much love and prayers of strength to Stephanie, Gabe and the Mata family. He was a dear friend and his last Facebook comment to me was "love you" on a post where I had been already struggling with my grief of my son's passing 2 years ago. Those two words mean the world to me and I carry them with me and pass them to you, Stephanie and Gabe. "Love you".

I can't express my sorrow adequately. Stephanie & Gabe know how amazing Mata was. He was a ray of sunshine with just enough smog to make it worth looking at. :) Love you, Al. Have fun driving your energy through the universe. See you when I get there.

Alan was one of the kindest men I've ever met. He -always- managed to make me smile just by standing around and shooting me "the look". Whenever I'm down, I'll remember his infectious laughter. He will be deeply missed.

Mata is one of the most honorable and supportive people I have ever known. We are strengthened because of him and poorer without him. Hey Al, the bear and I will certainly miss you, but we'll see you later.
