Alfred was born the son of Ruben and Lora Mae (Henderson) Jones on May 19, 1932, at Tupelo in southeast Oklahoma. His family moved to Mountain View, OK, in 1946 to work in cotton harvesting. At the age of 14, Al began his work life in the oilfields and custom combine harvesting. He worked both in-state and out-of-state for many years before embarking on a career in the service station business.

Al and Joette Henry were married in 1950 and three children were born to this union: Janet Arlene Jones, Darlene Sellmyer and Joe Bob Merrill. He served in the army during the Korean War from 1952-1954. Coming to Bartlesville in 1954, Al began work in home construction with Gerald Coast, a longtime friend and comrade in the service. He then went to work for Tom Sas "66" Service Station for six years. Al met Marcella Hallagin and they were united in marriage on April, 6 1956. They enjoyed 58 years together and to this union two children were born: Marceleen Matney and Alfred (Sonny) Jones Jr. In 1958 Al acquired his own service station Al Jones "66" and operated it for 18 years. He then went to work for Phillips Petroleum Company opening up Madison "66" before taking early retirement in 1986. Al was an expert marksman and he enjoyed spending time outdoors, whether managing his farm, or fishing and hunting, his favorite hobbies.
