My most sincere condolences to the family. Few words can express our sorrow when we lose someone we truly love. But I hope your family is able to approach God in prayer and express your sorrow to Him. He promises that if we draw close to Him then He will draw close to us - James 4:8. So never underestimate the power of prayer. God is always there to listen and provide comfort when we need it the very most. And if you would like more help in dealing with your grief please visit www.jw.org.

Dear family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Andy will be missed by his family and friends, but he will not be forgotten by his heavenly father Jehovah. I hope the words found at (John 5:28,29) will bring comfort knowing that you have an opportunity to see him again.

My dear brother I love you, we have grown so close over the last 8 years. It has been my pleasure to be your caregiver. God has been good to both of us. As you would always say (Without God you are nothing), God is our strength and refuge. I know you are in your mansion in heaven that Jesus prepared for you. I will miss you but I'll see you again.
