

Ann Alvarado

September 9, 1934 - March 11, 2018

Ann Alvarado, Bartlesville resident aged 83, was in Dewey when she was called home by her Heavenly Father.

Lenora Ann Allen, affectionately known as “Annie” to her family and Ann to friends, was born on Sept. 9, 1934, in Barnsdall, OK, the daughter of Oliver Franklin and Zola Cora (Holt) Allen. Her earthly father was a Fire Baptized Holiness preacher and the family lived in various communities during her growing up years. They settled in Ochelata after her father died when she was 17. Ann graduated from Ochelata High School and went to work for Phillips Petroleum Co.

Most likely while taking her lunch break Ann met a nice young serviceman at the Flat Iron restaurant on Frank Phillips Blvd. Pablo Alvarado who was stationed on Radar Hill, had first seen her on New Year’s Eve two months earlier and went back many times until he chanced upon her again. He asked her out and instead, she invited him to church the next day. On Aug. 3, 1957, Ann was united in marriage with Pablo. Shortly before Pablo was deployed to Japan and Ann took their young daughter Linda to Pharr, TX, in the Rio Grande valley to live with his family. Once home Pablo took a teaching position in Pekin, IL, where a second daughter Anna Lisa was born. His teaching positions took them to Shidler Oklahoma and to Texas where Ann started her 20-plus year career with the Texas Education Service Center.

Later in life Pablo entered the ministry and Ann was an active part of his ministry using her talents on the piano. Once retired they returned to Bartlesville to be closer to loved ones in 1995.

Ann's passions in life centered on God, Pablo and her girls. She was funny, kind and had a fabulous sense of humor. Ann and Pablo loved to travel and a real highlight among many trips was their memorable trip to Europe visiting several countries including Germany and France.

Ann is survived by her husband Rev. Pablo Alvarado of Bartlesville; two daughters Linda Carson and Dr. Scott Carson of Laurel, MS, and Anna Lisa Alvarado of Bartlesville; two brothers, Joedy Allen and Margaret of Vinita, and Donny Allen and Patty of Cherryvale, KS; one sister Lois Parker of Bartlesville; seven step siblings, Cecil Hamilton, John Hamilton, Thomas Hamilton, Clara Jones, Josephine Counterman, Mary Corn and Barbara foreman; four grandchildren, Melissa Ann Carson Pichon and Severin of Huntsville, AL, David Prescott Carson and Rachel Carson of Virginia Beach, VA, Patricia Ann DeGroot and David DeGroot of Houston, and Sergent First Class John Musser III and Kallista Musser of Cypress, TX, nine great grandchildren, and a host of other family and friends.
