

Anna Oretta Vermillion

May 21, 1921 - August 12, 2021

Anna Oretta Vermillion passed away Thursday, August 12, 2021, at Bartlesville Assisted Living at the age 100 years.

Anna was born on May 21, 1921 in Tahlequah, Cherokee County, Oklahoma. Her father worked construction and her mother was a housewife. Her parents, Grover and Rosa, had 5 children. Anna went to school at Hulbert, Oklahoma and then married Elton (Snowball or E.J.) Vermillion, whom she met at church, and they had five children. In 1953 Anna and Elton moved their family from Cherokee County to a home in Bartlesville, Washington County.

Anna enjoyed cooking for family and always looked forward to camping every summer and early fall at Fort Gibson Lake. Elton and their family and friends caught plenty of fish, her favorite food was catfish or crappie with cornbread and fried potatoes. She volunteered at Jane Phillips Hospital and attended Bluestem Baptist Church of Dewey.

On May 21, 2021, the Centenarians of Oklahoma Hall of Fame, along with many family and friends honored Anna on her 100th birthday with a celebration party at the Bartlesville Assisted Living facility, where she has lived for the past 2 years.

Anna is predeceased by her father and mother, Grover Daniel and Rosa
