

Betty Lou Hartline

August 15, 1949 - October 18, 2021

Betty Lou Hartline, age 72, passed away Monday, October 18, 2021, in Bartlesville.

Betty was born August 15, 1949, in Waterloo, Iowa to Ezra John and Mary June (Perin) Pederson.

Betty taught school at East High in Waterloo, Iowa, worked for Motorola in Chicago, Illinois and for SITEL in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Betty loved a good debate on politics or religion especially with her brother-in-law Dave Jenkins and she had a never-ending love for her late husband Vance L. Hartline Sr., and she never remarried after his death in 1980.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Vance L. Hartline Sr., her parents, Jack and Mary Pederson of Waterloo, Iowa and brothers Craig Pederson and Mark Pederson both of Waterloo, Iowa.

Survivors include her children: Teresa VanGerpen (Mark) of Overland Park, KS, Christine Danette Reiter (Dan) of Denver, Iowa, and Vance Leroy Hartline, Jr. of Des Moines, Iowa.

Siblings, Gregg (Beth) Pederson of Waterloo, Iowa, Debbie (Dave) Jenkins of Bartlesville, OK and Bonnie (Dennis) Dalziel of Eastville, California.

She was blessed with seven grandchildren: Tyler (Lindsey) VanGerpen, Morgan (Devan) Bestgen, Colton, Trevan and Ethan Reiter, Langston and Avery Hartline. Great-grandchildren include Brynlee and Jace Bestgen and Marie VanGerpen along with a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Betty will be buried alongside her husband Vance L. Hartline Sr. in Waterloo, Iowa.