

Billy "Bill" Eugene Smith

May 28, 1940 - July 22, 2022

Bill Eugene Smith, 82, of Dewey, died Friday, July 22, 2022, in Dewey.

Bill was born the son of Carl James and Lolaree (Fowler) Smith on May 28, 1940, in Pryor, OK. The family moved to Dewey a few years later and Bill grew up on the family farm, learning to work livestock with his father. They were best friends and worked livestock together for many years. Bill was active in FFA at Dewey schools, graduating with the class of 1958. He went on to marry Donna Cowan and they were blessed with two children, Tony and Sherrie. They remember weekends at the lake on the boat and spending the summers in Strang and the grandparents' farm. Bill worked for 30 plus years at Reda Pump, retiring as a machinist.

Bill's passions in life centered around raising cattle, horses, and other livestock. His TV was always on and he enjoyed watching westerns and Sooner football. In his younger years he played slow pitch league softball in the Washington County Softball Association. In his later years, he loved to fish. Most of all Bill loved to joke around and give those he loved a hard time. He was loved and will be dearly missed.

Bill is survived by his children, Sherrie Taylor and husband Kevin, and Tony Smith; sisters, Phyllis Reynolds and husband Tom, and Carlene Hobbs and husband David; brother, Tommy Smith; and grandson, Cross Smith. He is preceded in death by his parents and brother Ray Smith.

“ Not sure why Phyllis wasn't mentioned in Bill's obituary but Bill loved her very much! They enjoyed watching western movies together, going to church together and he loved to catch the fish so he could bring them home to her to clean and cook it! They had 8 great years together! I'm sure going to miss seeing him and her together. Till we see each other again May you RIP Bill
