I'm so sorry that Mr. Nicolas has passed. He was a wonderful man.
He always made me feel welcome when I visited Jeannette. I remember him taking us for rides on his motorcycle, boating at the lake, and watching horse races. I will always cherish those memories.

I have lots of memories with the Nicolas family. Camping in the backyard with his daughter, watching the lunar eclipse, jumping on the trampoline, taking motorcycle rides and so much more. It was obvious that he loved his wife and daughters and that they meant the world to him. He never said an unkind word to me even though I certainly deserved it at times. Though he may no longer be with us in body, his spirit lives on in those who know him.
