

Cassandra Ann Blount

June 23, 1989 - July 16, 2024

Cassandra Ann Blount, 35, of Bartlesville, began her heavenly adventure on Tuesday, July 16, 2024.

Cassandra was born June 23, 1989, in Bartlesville, to Kent and Julie (Wastlund) Blount. She attended Bartlesville Public Schools, where she developed her deep love of music, singing, and performing arts. She was in the Bartlesville High School Band and enjoyed the choir program. She was so very talented and was happy to be a member of various Honors Choirs, including Circle the State with Song, District Honor Choir and multiple others. In her younger years, she was a member of the Possibility People Choir at Bartlesville's First Wesleyan Church. She also performed in several Children's Musical Theater productions through the years and with Bartlesville Theater Guild's "The King and I." Cassandra's talent with music eventually led her to becoming worship leader at Bartlesville First Church.

Always an adventurer at heart, Cassandra shared many outdoor adventures with her mother, family and dear friends. Her mother Julie was always a ready and willing "adventure buddy." They enjoyed numerous nights of camping, rockhounding, and kayaking, with special memories of kayaking during the eclipse, nighttime kayaking at Twin Bridges, and rockhounding at the Salt Plains and at the Ron Coleman Mine. Julie also went repelling with Cassandra at Robber's Cave State Park last year in April. In addition, the family share memories of going on cruises and even attending the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, a highlight for Cassandra because she got to miss two weeks of middle school to attend.

Cassandra started her career as a cosmetologist right out of high school, having graduated from Tri County Technology Center's cosmetology program the same year she graduated from Bartlesville High School in 2008.

Cassandra was passionate about her career and enjoyed taking her creativity to the next level with beautiful cuts, colors and styles. Her most recent salon was Allure, but her past salons were at Regis, Master Cuts, Walmart's salon, JCPenney's Salon, and Gail's. Cassandra had also attended Oklahoma Wesleyan University and more recently earned her associate's degree.

Cassandra loved sharing in her adventures and will always be remembered for her big, brave heart. She dearly loved her two dogs, Winston Charles and Penelope Sue; and cat, Hamilton. Cassandra was preceded in death by her beloved dog, Anastasia Grace.

Survivors include her parents, Kent and Julie Blount; her maternal grandmother, Shirl Wastlund; brothers, Michael (Kym Gibson) Blount, and Brandon (Lesley) Blount; sister, Sophia (Rowan) South; niece, Zoey; three nephews, Cayden, Oliver and Elliott; and a host of other family and friends.

Cassandra's family will receive friends from 3-5 p.m. Sunday, July 21, 2024, at Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel, 4201 Nowata Road, Bartlesville, OK 74006, 918-333-7665. Visitation will also be held that same day from noon-5 p.m.

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, July 22, 2024, also at Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel, with Reverend Greg Tener officiating. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ Cass... What can I say? I am completely and utterly shocked and saddened by your loss. Our brief summer together was one of the best I can recall. Your smile was infectious, your sense of humor was unmatched, and I still treasure the times when I held your hand in mine. I told you that I think that we were meant to find each other when we did and I know that I am the better for it. I will miss you so much... From our walks downtown, to our escapades in the Osage Hills, thank you for the memories we made together, darling.

“ Cassie loved her dogs, she was so good at doing hair, I told her she was the first person that knew how to blow dry my hair! She loved adventure, kayaking and boy could she give a good hug, she would hang on !! I know of her love for Jesus and she will be missed! Someday will meet again, I pray for peace for the family, because now Cassie has the greatest peace possible!

“ Cassie was the first person who I found could cut my hair and being so much light to the room while I morning her magic. She never ever failed to remember what was going on in my life and check in. She was genuine and real. Truly cared about her clients and considered each a true friend and made them all feel special. I will miss her so much. Condolences to each person who loved her.

“ I met Cassie in high school. She was bubbly, kind, and full of life and color. She was truly herself and embraced it. I always admired that about her. When we were in college together (Oklahoma Wesleyan University) I was really sick and had been kicked out of my parent’s house. I had no where to stay, had no clothes, nor food. When I felt the worst in the world, Cassie showed me love and kindness. She let me stay in her dorm (despite knowing she’d get in trouble). We got dressed up and did our hair and makeup to make me feel better. I will never forget that. And I will never forget what she meant to me.

“ My very first memory of Cassandra was when I lived with her and family in Bartlesville and we the whole family were getting ready for church. Young Cassie was 1 year old and was dressed so lovely in all white frilly dress for church. She was sitting on the floor and playing quietly while the rest of the family got dressed and ate breakfast. Low and behold after all were done eating and all were getting up to head to the car had she moved over on the floor from playing with toys to pulling all the dirt from the house plant close by all over the adorable little white dress face and hands. We all paused and laughed historically. From just a child to the Beautiful young lady she became ❤️ she brought many smiles, and laughs. Talented Beyond measure she will be missed by all. I wish I had the chance to know you more. Your sister Katrina

“ From meeting Cassie when we were just kids, to cheering alongside one another in middle school, to graduating high school together, to staying in touch well into adulthood. I always enjoyed catching up with you and seeing your kind face when I would come home to visit. I wish I could have hung out with you when I was in town for Independence Day, but I'm glad I got to see you on Christmas Eve, near the glow of sparkling lights from the church's Christmas tree. Rest in peace, sweet friend. 🌸🌺

“ I met Cassie on a Kayaking adventure. We camped out and had a great time. She had enough breakfast food for an army and cooked for a whole bunch of strangers. She made us all feel welcome. Over the next year or so- we went on several more adventures. The best one was going to Black Mesa in the Oklahoma panhandle where we hiked, saw dinosaur prints and marveled at some amazing stars! May her light eternally shine! Rest in peace!

“ Cassie and I had many fun nights that consisted of hanging out with great friends and singing choir songs, she's one of the funnest people to hang out with. As everyone knows she's a great stylist, after my first cut from her, I never wanted to get a cut from anyone else. I'll hold her family and friends in my prayers. RIP friend.

“ I can remember the day like it was yesterday, I was not 21 and this amazing lady poured out my green apple and she looked at me and she said yes I sure did pour it out you're not of age and then after we went to church I believe lol
