

Cecil Leon Magana

August 24, 1935 - October 29, 2023

Cecil Leon Magana, 88, of Bartlesville died Sunday in Bartlesville.

Cecil is survived by his loving wife Helga, children; Travis Kerr Magana and Frank Wallace Fransein. He was blessed with grandchildren Heidi, Helsa, Kaiser and Spencer along with great-grandchildren Coleman, Olivia and dear friend Dennis Milligan. He was preceded in death by his parents, daughter Dee Dee Magana and son Michael Fransein.

No formal services are planned. Arrangements are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home and Crematory Walker-Brown Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Tina Proctor lit a candle in memory of Cecil Leon Magana

Tina Proctor - August 28, 2024 at 06:07 PM

“ RIP MR MAGANA! DEE DEE WAS MY BEST FRIEND AND YOU WERE THE CLASSIEST MAN I HAD EVER MET AND Probably NEVER MET ANOTHER THAT MADE THE IMPRESSION ON ME THAT YOU DID. I've missed DeeDee all my life and will always remember when I came out to the house to give you her belongings from the hospital,I was crying and got tears on your silk shirt. You just hugged me tight and said it was nothing and thanked me for coming. I thought the world of you and Nancy and Travis too. I pray you are reunited with your girls in Heaven as they adored and loved you immensely. Travis,God Bless and keep you and your family and comfort you in your loss .

Holly Gullane Lark - January 07, 2024 at 04:07 PM

“ Jeanne Foreman Shepherd lit a candle in memory of Cecil Leon Magana

Jeanne Foreman Shepherd - November 01, 2023 at 10:04 AM

DD

“ Cecil lived a life that I envied. He knew more about racehorses than most top handicappers in nation. Rub elbows with some super cool celebrities, had the best Brothers always. Knew more how to squeeze oil out ground than anyone I know. He trusted to almost a fault. I'll make sure that when I bet the Breeders Cup races this weekend my bets will trace to a Round Table or Claiborne farm.

Denver Dean - November 01, 2023 at 04:31 AM

SK

“ I have known Cecil and his brother Carl most of my life. My dad, David Ainesworth Worked for both of them on their oil leases therefore I kind of grew up knowing them. Cecil was a good man coming to my dad's memorial which we held at the American Legion building so we can have access to the bar LOL. (That's the way my dad would have wanted it) I thought that was really sweet of him to show up. And it was pretty cool that Cecil let my dad's ashes be spread on the oil lease my dad worked at for him. He will be missed but greatly remembered. My true condolences to his family

Sheila May King - November 01, 2023 at 04:02 AM

DE

“ Our Condolences to the entire family, Helga I'm so sad to hear about Cecil. I always felt like he was part of my family. Because he always treated me so.
Serving the Lord from My Heart, Deniece Hitchcock Bush.

Deniece - October 31, 2023 at 02:17 AM