

Christopher Dallas Batten

August 2, 1988 - April 26, 2023

Christopher Dallas Batten, 34, of Bartlesville, OK, died Wednesday in Bartlesville. He has gone on to his eternal home and heavenly music, but he will be missed on earth by his family and friends.

Christopher was born the son of Tom Eugene Batten and Jenae Lynn Robinson on August 2, 1988, in Vancouver, Washington. At the age of four his family moved to Bartlesville where Christopher attended Bartlesville Public Schools. At age six he got his first guitar and instantly found his passion in life for writing and recording his own music. During his high school years, Christopher was a member of several local bands and loved to perform whenever he could. He was a talented beatboxer and could even make music with just his voice as his percussion instrument.

Christopher's greatest passion in life came just 10 years ago when his precious daughter Caidence was born. Daddy and daughter loved kicking the soccer ball around, going for walks or just being outside with each other. Recently Christopher served as the assistant coach of her soccer team and he really enjoyed spending that extra bit of time with his favorite girl - coaching her and not just watching her. Most recently he found Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, attending First Nazarene Church and playing guitar in the worship band.

Christopher is survived by the love of his life Ashton Butterfield; daughter Caidence Nicole Batten; father Tom Batten; mother Jenae Robinson and fiancé Sean Tafoya; bonus dad Jeff Robinson; paternal grandparents Clois and Geneva Batten; maternal grandmother Shirley Haller; bonus grandparents Melvin and Charlotte Robinson; five siblings Heather, Megan, Brian, Jessica and Keisha; and a host of other family and friends.

Christopher's family will receive friends on Tuesday, from 6-8 p.m., at the Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel, 918-333-7665, 4201 Nowata Rd, Bartlesville. Visitation will also be held on Tuesday from 10-8.

Services will be held on Wednesday, at 10 a.m., at the Bartlesville First Church of the Nazarene. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ I will never forget Chris. Elementary school birthday parties, delivering newspapers, riding bikes all over town, skateboarding, wearing soap brand shoes and grinding every rail in sight, losing the 4th grade spelling bee to Him by misspelling the word “Tight”. The young kid in me is devastated that he’s not here with us anymore. But I’m proud to say that he was a part of some very influential times in my life and I’m really going to miss that infectious Laugh. Rest in peace, Brother. ❤️

“ My son. My baby boy. The most beautiful boy I had ever seen. He grew into an amazing man, brother, son and daddy. He was talented and had the gift of entertaining. The bond was indescribable we had. I will forever be thankful that God allowed me to be his mom and let me watch him become the incredible dad he was. He had a heart full of love for his family and friends. This world will never be the same without him in it but I trust the Lord to allow us to be together again. He is now without anxiety and pain. I love you Bobster. With my entire heart. I will miss you every day until we are together again. I will forever be proud to be Chris Batten’s mom. ❤️

“ I had the privilege of being in the delivery room when my first grandson Christopher was born. I was given the task of videoing the event and had a hard time staying focused on filming when I really wanted to just be watching 😊.
