

Dale Phillip White

October 5, 1959 - August 25, 2023

Dale Phillip White, 63, of Bartlesville, died August 25, 2023, in Bartlesville.

Dale was born the son of Richard L. and Noelle (North) White on October 05, 1959, in Lynnwood, Washington. During his school days he enjoyed track and field, played the bass guitar and fiddle, and earned the rank of Eagle Scout. Dale graduated from Sooner High with the class of 1978 and went on to further his education at Oklahoma State University, graduating in 1982, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. Dale's career took him many places around the country and even to Saudia Arabia. He worked as a software programmer for Intergraff and later contracted with engineering firms for road construction and bridges.

Dale had many passions in life, including music from a young age. A trip to iconic Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico, influenced his love for the natural world. Oftentimes he would call his mother to enjoy the sunset or to tell her about a bird he spotted. He was cast as an extra in several movies, something he enjoyed taking part in. Dale's time in Saudia Arabia helped form a passion for travel. He traveled through Europe. His favorite country was Germany and he even made it as far as Russia. Dale loved life and his family. He will be dearly missed.

Dale is survived by his mother Noelle White; brothers, David White and Dean

White; nieces, Lauren Kirchoff and husband Conley, and Elise Wall; and great-niece, Averi Wall. He is preceded in death by his father, Richard L. White; and sister, Diana C. Wall.
