“ Dad, sitting here & really missing you & mom. Dad mom did not make very wise decisions before she passed. But I know that things will be OK eventually. Sadly my family keeps getting smaller & smaller. I will always remember how you always smiled when I came over & was truly happy I was there. I miss you dad. Love you always your daughter Pam.

“ i miss you so much papa. i wish so bad for you to be here again. nothing is the same without you here. i wish you were here for my 18th birthday party and i wish you were here to see that i'm in nursing school with a 4.0 right now. im doing great things. we miss you so very much. i wish i could just hop in your truck one more time and go to school. i wish i was around more while you were sick. i wish you were still here. when you died i had a dream of you dropping me off at school and all the sudden it was like a wall was in between us and i couldn't get to you and you just drove off in your green truck and idk what it meant but it meant everything to me papa. please watch over nana i don't see her as much as i should. i hate having to look at pictures instead of you and i hate having to kiss pictures instead of your cheeks. i hate sitting in your chair and not on you lap i just wish you were here because we need you papa. rest in peace and watch over nana. dalton too he misses you dearly and doesn't express it stay near us we need you. one day i'm gonna make it out like poncho villa and it'll all be for you papa.

“ i love you so much papa and i wish you knew how much i wished you could've been there for my 18th i wish you were still here for nana she misses you so much. i'm in nursing school and i even have a 4.0 i'm doing so good. i'm struggling in my mind a bit cause i miss my mom a lot me and her don't get along anymore. i wish you were here to see the things i'm gonna do in life and the things i'm doing right now. i wish i could just hop into your green truck and go to school one more time. when you died i had a dream that you dropped me off at school and i felt stuck behind a barrier i couldn't get to you and you just drove off in your green truck. i'm sorry i wasn't there when you were sick and i should've spent everyday over there. i wish i would've let you take me to school for longer and i wish i would've came and seen you more. now that you're gone it's the weirdest feeling ever and i wish i never had to feel this way. to only look at you through pictures and have to kiss your pictures instead of your cheek. i just miss you so much papa and i wish i could just hug you one more time. one day i'll make it out like poncho villa and it'll all be for you papa. i love you to the moon and back. rest in peace and watch over nana because she misses you so much and she needs you more than anything in this world.

This is the man that I have always loved, he has always came to my rescue no matter what the situation. He listened to me, gave me advice, & never judged me even if I did not always listen. He had a heart of gold, always willing to help others without hesitation. I am so blessed to have had him by my side for as long as I did. I will be lost for awhile without you dad, but I know you are always there with me. I will still ask you for advice & help because I know you will show me the way. The day you left was one of the worst days of my life! Oh how I miss you dad..& wish I could have a few more moments with you. I was not ready for this day to come, but I know no one ever is. This best decision I ever made was to move back to Bartlesville to be with you & mom. You will be in my heart for ever.. Thank you for being the dad you were too me!! Love you forever Dad. Pam

I will forever miss you my friend. He was always here for me and my family. I loved him like a father. He was there for me in the most tragic times. It didn't matter what was wrong he was always here for me even just for encouraging words of wisdom. I remember when nobody else was there for me he was. I will forever miss you my friend until we meet again. Love you old man. Keep a fresh pot of
