

Dixie Ingerham Shook

June 21, 1945 - December 13, 2020

Dixie Shook of Caney, KS, was in Caney Sunday when she rode off into her eternal sunset. She was 75 and had enjoyed sharing her love of horses, shopping and crafts with her family and friends.

Dixie was born the daughter of Loss Ingerham and Claudia Henson on June 21, 1945, in Tulsa, OK. She was raised by Edna Schoonover and Loss Ingerham in Tulsa with her extended family close by and graduated from McLain High School in 1963. Dixie began her working life as a beautician before starting her 30-plus year career with Zebco in Tulsa where she retired as line lead in 1997. Once retired Dixie moved to Ochelata for five years before moving north just across the state line and settling in Caney for the past 15 years.

Growing up Dixie developed a lifelong passion for horses and rodeo from her father. She barrel raced and passed her passion onto her beloved daughter Patti and became her greatest fan, loudly cheering Patti on in her races. In recent years Dixie enjoyed attending and watching rodeo on TV. Dixie was known for her love of shopping, oftentimes shopping all day and into the night. She loved arts and crafts and Dixie had a whole room dedicated to it in her home. She crocheted, sewed and crafted, creating afghans and unique handicrafts to give to family and friends. Dixie also loved going to Grove Ok to Windy's house and spending 2 weeks a month playing with her nieces, great nieces and great great nieces and nephews.

Dixie is survived by two sisters Linda Rose and Tina Steel; five nieces, Windy, Mason, Tommi, Bailey and Presli - all Jeffries; nephew Billy Moss, cousin Sue Moss, dear friend Pat Hite and her family, and numerous great nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Patricia Kay "Patti" Shook; sister, Beverly; and brother Tony Cantu.

Visitation will be held Thursday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Davis Family Funeral Home, 918-534-3030, 113 S. Osage (Hwy. 75).

Graveside services will be held 2 p.m. on Friday, December 18, at Niotaze Cemetery in Niotaze, KS. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ WOW ! What an exiting life she lived. From riding tradin horses in every sale barn when she was younger to being so blessed to get to be with her daughter Patty at every Barrel Race in the country. I just loved to talk to Dixie. She would call & we would talk about ole times. She knew that I was the youngest & the only one left of the old time horse traders. She was so amazing how she could remember Names, Places, Dates & old horse tradin stories, That were so exciting, unbelievably true & really happened in our Horse Tradin Family. Now she is in heaven reuniting with her daughter & some of the people we talked about. Patty is going to be running barrels on a Big White Horse & Guess What ? Now Dixie’s got one too ! Adios Cowgirl. See Ya When I Get There ! 🤔🙏

“ The last time I talked to Dixie she told me we (my sister Patti, Dixie and me) need to all get together while we’re still here. Well, we didn’t get to.
We have all been friends since we were teenagers and her cousin Gary was our dear friend, too. Dixie’s dad, Loss Ingerham and his brother Garland were the last of the old time horse traders, and known by everyone in the rodeo and horse world.
Dixie could have written a book with all the exciting memories she had of her life. I love her and will miss her very much.

“ Dixie was my first friend at Zebco we shared a lot of laughs just really good times together. She was very loyal to all her friends and truthful even if you didn't want to hear it. I loved her she was a great friend and will be missed . She's with her Heavenly Father and greeted by family. This is not goodbye Dixie we'll meet again someday.

I was very sorry to hear of Dixie's passing. I have known Dixie for many years and loved her and her whole family. I know she is with all of her loved ones now, laughing and exchanging story's. Dixie was a great story teller and could put you back to a time and place with so much detail, you felt you were there. We had some great times back in the good old days. Much love to you always my dear friend!
