Family and friends. I am so deeply sorry to hear about Donnie falling asleep in death. He will not be forgotten because of Jesus' promise found at John 5:28,29. I hope this promise bring comfort during this difficult time.

Donnie and I were truly like brothers. we met in grade school wrestling, and our Dads knew each other, Butch and Wally. We became best fiends and when we were 15 we ran away one summer for the whole summer . I remember it was then we decided we would always be best friends no matter what. All during high school people called us Butch and Wally lol. He was the best man in my wedding. Time and circumstances pulled us apart physically but we always had that Brother spiritual connection. His birthday was one week after mine and he always called me on my birthday for his whole life. a couple of years ago he didn't call and so I called him. To find out the bad news of his Cancer. I have been praying for him and his family since and got to be with him and pray the day he past. As a matter of fact after I prayed for him he mumbled something and I wasn't sure what he said then I heard him say I wanna pray for you! This blew my mind . But that was the Brother I had he was worried about me in spite of his circumstances . I Love you Donnie and I will see ya soon in Heaven. I Pray peace and comfort that can only come from Jesus for April, Jennifer, Hayden, and his whole family .

Donnie you will be in my heart forever. Donnie and I shared alot of good times together. I was so happy that I got to see you a few weeks before you went to a better place, where you are not in pain. You were the toughest man I know. You will be forever missed, but your shining light will live on through Jennifer & Hayden. Till we meet again my friend. To Butch,Bill,Kelli,Joe & the rest of the family. My prayers & love go out to you, he was the best and Jeff & I wish you only the best, praying for all of you. Leslie & Jeff. Harley
