One of the greatest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I could always count on him to make me laugh, and though he was small he had a tremendously huge heart if you took the time to get to know him. I grew very close to him while being his nurse at Adams Parc and I will always cherish the things he taught me. We would spend hours talking, and I was never so amazed at how smart he was. He truly was one of a kind. I'm thankful to have known him- as well as John and Jennifer. God bless, Kelsi Ann
