

Mrs. Dorothy M. Hill

October 7, 1941 - June 29, 2013

Dorothy Mae Hill, 71, lifelong Nowata resident and proud Cherokee daughter, died Saturday afternoon.

Dorothy was born on October 7, 1941, in Nowata, OK, the daughter of George Edward Hamil and Lucille Pauline (Van Bibber). She was raised in the Nowata area and educated at Watova Elementary and Nowata High School. Dorothy was united in marriage with William E. King.

Dorothy enjoyed cooking and turned her passion into a lifelong vocation. She worked as a cook for 27 years at the Nowata Nursing Home, feeding thousands of seniors and staff members over the years.

Dorothy also loved John Wayne, country music and horses. As a child, she often “stole” and rode her brother’s horse while he was at school and even renamed it “Dot.” When her only child was born, Dorothy named her Dottie.

Dorothy was a beloved mother, grandmother and great grandmother, with many family members living around the Nowata area. She is survived by her only daughter Dottie May Horton and Charles of Nowata; one granddaughter Desiree Horton, also of Nowata; and five grandsons Lewis Rice and Katrina of Bartlesville, Ricky Rice of Nowata, Curtis Horton of Claremore, Dewayne Brewington and Alicia of Newkirk, and Matthew Horton of Nowata, as well as 13 great grandchildren. She also is survived by one sister Debbie Ainsworth of Hogshooter, and two brothers Jimmy Hamil of Nowata and Junior Hamil of Watova. She is preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two sisters Mary Worthington and Doris Garner, one granddaughter Cristel Horton, and two great granddaughters Cheyanne Rice and Jocelynn Horton.

The family will receive friends for visitation at the Hillside Christian Church of Nowata, on Tuesday, July 2, 2013 from 5-8 p.m. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

Graveside services for Mrs. Hill will be held Friday, July 5, 2013, at 10 a.m. in the Nowata Memorial Park Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of the Davis Family Funeral Home.
