

Edward "Ed" Wayne Bond

August 17, 1946 - July 28, 2024

Edward Wayne Bond, 77, Vietnam Veteran of Dewey, died Sunday, July 28th in Bartlesville.

Ed was born the son of Charles Augustus and Jewel Juanita (Wren) Bond on August 17, 1946 in Bartlesville. He was the second youngest of ten siblings and also the last surviving sibling. As a teenager he fondly remembered his time working at the Mullendore Ranch breaking horses. Ed had a lifelong passion for horses and enjoyed riding. Ed loved his country and enlisted in the United States Army. He served in Germany, Korea and then Vietnam during the war. Once honorably discharged he returned home. While working security at Hilcrest Country Club he became smitten with a co-worker, Beverly. They quickly became an item and on April 1, 1980, were married in Ponca City to start their life together. Ed was a wonderful companion to Beverly and a great stepdad to her four children.

Together with Beverly, Ed enjoyed traveling, making several visits to a friend's ranch in Montana. He had the opportunity while in Montana to ride the beautiful horses on the ranch. They also enjoyed hosting family dinners and bringing everyone together for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Ed was proud of being a Vietnam Veteran. He always wore his vest and hat that indicated his service to his country. He was a life member of the DAV and took care to support and help fellow veterans. Most of all Ed showed love and compassion for everyone around him and he loved his family dearly.

Ed is survived by his loving wife of 44 years Beverly, children, Allison Bond, Robert (Angela) Langford, Russell Langford, Neva Vanderlinden and Rhonda (Frank) Shrum, seventeen grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, nine siblings and son-in-law Robert Vanderlinden.

“ Hi grandpa it's me Amber my grandpa was my My hero.. he fought for my life when I quit breathing. And how we fell for sugars with sandpaper cheeks and motorboat noise I miss the most the glow and the smile and twinkle in his eye when he got a ride out of grandma with sets of lungs screaming in laughter. Then winking at grandma those were the good ol days when my jelly's were not stuck in a tree. Thank you and you will be missed and till we meet again

“ Oh grandpa I will miss seeing your face when I come for visits. I will miss your laughs. I hate being so far away, you took me in as your own grandchild even know aren't blood, but you and grandma both treated me like I was one of your own. As I'm sitting here reading your obituary and writing this I'm holding back the tears that I will not be able to see you when I come for visits. I love you so freaking much. 💔😭

“ In 1967, a young man drove my dad, in Vietnam, from the 44th Signal Battalion to the JAG Corp. so he could inquire if they needed a court reporter. Just a simple truck ride that made me exist. R.I.P. Ed Bond and THANK YOU for saving my dad. All our love. ❤️ 🇺🇸

“ In Memory of Grandpa

*A soldier brave, a patriot true,
Your love for country, ever blue.
With wisdom deep and heart so kind,
In every memory, peace we find.*

*Seventy-seven years, a life well-lived,
To family and friends, your all you gave.
A loving husband, father dear,
In our hearts, you're always near.*

*Wolves adorned your world with grace,
In their spirit, we see your face.
Majestic, strong, and ever free,
A symbol of your legacy.*

*Your smile, a beacon bright and warm,
Guiding us through life's every storm.
In every laugh, in every cheer,
We feel your presence, ever near.*

*Rest now, dear Grandpa, in fields above,
Wrapped in our eternal love.
Forever in our hearts you'll stay,
Until we meet again one day.*
