Elizabeth Ann Maas was born February 2, 1930 in Kansas City, KS to Harry A. and Mary A. Maas. She married Gene Dizmang on October 22, 1949 in Kansas City, KS at St. Peters Catholic Cathedral while both were working for Phillips Petroleum Company. Elizabeth was an enterprising, adventurous and generous soul. She played saxophone in high school and graduated from St. Aloysius All Girls School in Kansas City, MO. After marriage, Gene and Elizabeth moved to Bartlesville and started a family. Elizabeth began to acquire her business acumen by working at the Post Office and a bank. She later owned and operated Dizmang's Bookland and the Nipa Hut furniture store, both successful downtown businesses. Elizabeth did all this while raising five children, becoming an avid bridge player, and growing in her faith at St. John Catholic Church. After retiring, her adventurous side emerged. She would try anything - from riding horses to traveling to exotic places. Not only did she walk the Wall of China, but also explored the Holy Land and the Pyramids. She went to the Philippines, traveled up the Pagsanjan River by canoe, and explored the mountains of Bagio. She and Gene enjoyed numerous cruises exploring Europe, Asia, South America, Alaska, the Caribbean and Panama Canal. They also traveled extensively at home, visiting numerous National Parks. Her philanthropy included generous contributions to her church and local charitable organizations.

Elizabeth is survived by three sons; Gerald Dizmang and wife Dorothy of Bartlesville, Chris Dizmang and wife Debbie of Bartlesville, Paul Dizmang and wife Brooke of Springfield, MO and two daughters; Diana Kocheran and husband Gary of Bartlesville, and Mary Grove and husband Jerry of Bartlesville. She was blessed with eleven grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. Elizabeth is also survived by two sisters, Rose Svoboda and Rita Schwartz of the Kansas City, KS area. Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, Gene Dizmang, her parents, two brothers and one sister.

I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved This is never easy to face, in fact death can be viewed as an enemy. That's how our Creator Jehovah views it as according to 1 Cor. 15:26; which says, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." May you find comfort in knowing this and that he has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. This scripture along with jw.org has always brought me and many others a lot of comfort. ~
