

Floyd M. Brown

December 15, 1933 - December 20, 2019

Floyd Martin Brown, 86, of Bartlesville, was in Bartlesville Friday when he left this earth for the arms of Jesus Christ his Savior.

Floyd was born the youngest of nine children to Edwin Martin and Geneva (Brown) Brown on Dec. 15, 1933 in Maysville, AR. At a young age Floyd and family moved to Ochelata, OK, where he received his education with the Class of 1951 and grew up in the Fire Baptized Holiness Church in Ochelata where as a young man he felt the Lord's calling and was saved. One day while Floyd was sitting in his car, who should walk by but the soon-to-be love of his life, Mary Ann Eastman. She noticed his long pair of legs stretching out of an open car door and she caught his eye. They quickly fell head over heels in love and were united in marriage on June 16, 1956, in San Antonio, TX, where Floyd was stationed in the army. They briefly lived in Germany before Floyd's honorable discharge, then made their home in Bartlesville where they raised and loved their three children. Once home in Oklahoma, Floyd started his 42-year career with Reda Pump, providing for his family before retiring in 1994.

Floyd loved the Lord deeply. He was sanctified in the Wesleyan Holiness Alliance Church in Bartlesville where he was a charter member. Together Floyd and his bride enjoyed singing special songs during services and were active in the ministries of the church. They attended many camp meetings and cherished the many friends they made over the years. They loved to travel and took many memorable trips with their kids when they were young. In recent years, they travelled to Indiana to visit with Jonathan and his children. Back home, Floyd could oftentimes be found sitting out under his pecan tree where he would try to shoot the pesky squirrels with his pellet gun. Since he never hit one he trapped and released them at his granddaughter Shara's house so he could visit them. He never passed up a bargain and was always happy to visit with friends.

Floyd and Mary Ann were each other's faithful companions and they enjoyed 62 years of loving marriage together before she preceded him in death and eternal salvation last October. Floyd missed her and he too will be dearly missed by family and friends.

Floyd is survived by two children Rebecca King and Leroy of Caney, Jonathan Brown and Carla of Whitestown, IN; daughter in law Sharon Brown of Bartlesville; eight grandchildren, Dustin Worthington and Kayla, Neal King, Brian King, Joshua Brown and Julianna, Shara Tate and Roy, Caleb Brown, Levi Brown, and Liberty Brown; 12 great grandchildren, EJ, Adriel, Ryker, Tanner, Austin, Dalton, Brianna, Austin, Dalena, Sharleese, Parker and Aryanna; and one great great granddaughter Adylanna. He is preceded in death by his wife Mary Ann, parents, son Dale Alan Brown, all of his siblings which were his three brothers, Daniel, Leon and Tom, and five sisters, Zelma, Hazel Dean, Mary Margaret, Nellie and Doris.

Floyd's family will receive friends at the Davis Family Funeral Home – Walker Brown Chapel, 918-333-7665, 4201 Nowata Rd, Bartlesville, on Friday, from 6-8 p.m. Visitation will also be held on Friday from 10-8.

Funeral services will be held 2 pm on Saturday, at the Davis Family Funeral Home – Walker Brown Chapel. Interment will follow at the Ochelata Cemetery. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home – Walker Brown Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

Cemetery Details

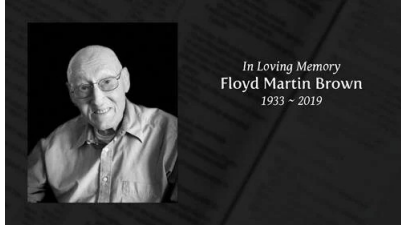

Ochelata

West 2900 Road
Ochelata, OK

Tribute Wall

“ Davis Family Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Floyd M. Brown

Davis Family Funeral Home - December 24, 2019 at 12:30 PM

LK

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family in the passing the Floyd. Floyd and Mary Ann were my neighbors in Oak park when I moved to Bartlesville in the late 90s. They were always kind and helpful to me in my time as their neighbor. I was blessed to run into them around time and we always took time to stop for the moment and visit. may god comfort your hearts during this time of loss, yet the joy of them re-united at the Throne fo God in Heaven.

Lee Kanakis - January 03, 2020 at 12:02 PM

CS

“ One of the most kindest and God fearing man I'll ever know. Always there for you in time of need and prayers. Your kindest and gratitude will continue on in hearts of those you helped. May God comfort the hearts of your family in this time

Cody Scott - December 21, 2019 at 09:54 AM

DB

“ What a wonderful man that I know is now walking the streets of gold. Floyd was such a sweet, genuine person. I feel honored to have known/worked with him. Prayers for the family.

donna boling - December 21, 2019 at 09:41 AM

DY

“ One of the most kind and Godly men I've ever known will miss him God bless all the family and friends Gods Just taking his children home love and prayers the David youngs

David Young - December 20, 2019 at 11:05 PM