Frank was born August 21, 1942, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Frank “Pat” and Grayce Marion (Baston) Gwin. He grew up in Tulsa and graduated from Tulsa’s Central High School in 1960. He later attended Oklahoma State University for a year and then transferred to the University of Tulsa, where he graduated in 1967 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, majoring in accounting.

Frank married the love of his life, Sue Ann Swan, on October 7, 1983, in Dewey, Oklahoma. The couple lived in Houston, Texas, for about 17 years before they returned to Dewey. In his teenage years he joined a country and western band, and as an adult he was a member of a barbershop quartet in Houston. He also served as song leader and treasurer of Sugarland Church of God in Houston. After moving back to Dewey, Frank sang special music when requested at Dewey Church of the Nazarene.

Frank loved his four children very much and was active in their lives. He and Sue enjoyed traveling to visit their children and grandchildren in various states.

In addition to music, Frank's hobbies included bowling, golfing and playing tennis. Really any sport was his favorite sport and seemed to never get enough of it.
