“ One of my most cherished memories of Ginny was when Lisa and I were driving back from gymnastics with her mom and dad. Ginny looked over at a house and saw an elderly woman pushing a lawnmower. I remember Ginny saying “Stop, Jerry! She shouldn’t be doing that. Go help her. Lisa and I were so young but Ginny’s compassion and love for others left a lasting impression on my heart. I think of that day often. I can still hear the urgency in her voice. I’m 100% sure I that when I yell at my husband to stop and help, it’s because of that moment in time.
