To the family of Greer: My husband, Paul, loved Greer and spoke of what a wonderful manager and mentor he was for him many, many times over the years. Paul would come home from the fitness center in recent years and be thrilled to tell me he had seen Greer there. Paul is in heaven now and I am sure he is greeting Greer. May your memories of Greer and his love for you as well as God's promise of support comfort you in these very difficult days. With respect and love, Zeta Powell

I felt the need to pass my condolences to the entire McCleskey family on behalf of my parents, Burr and Betty Saltzman. They pass on about 4 years ago but I know they would have been so very sad to have heard the news about Mr. McCleskey. I believe I meet Mr. McCleskey once or twice when I was very young but I heard my dad talk about him all the time. I know he respected him very much and held him in the highest regard and he always called him his friend. Peace for his entire family.
