“ Harold was my little brother; 2 yrs younger. We grew up with loving parents and taught hard work at a young age. He was a hard worker on his farm & on our parents farm. He worked along with me (Dorothy Lee). We had to work so we could support our parents to feed us & buy us school clothes. He usually had to plow the fields so he & I could plant the vegetables for the family's eating. Any left over vegetables got canned by Mom or taken to the Community Sale. He was a good brother, but did argue differences sometimes. Ha! Every Fourth of July morning he lit a fire cracker under my bedroom window to scare me. He played funny pranks on me and mom every so often.

When we visited our Grandma Brooks in Ponca City. Harold had to sleep in the attic and he would always tell me he was sleeping in the sky!

He was a good man and salt of the earth. Our parents raised us well, and taught us right from wrong. I will miss my brother and I know he is with our Lord and Savior, our parents and sister, and my husband, Carl who passed 2 months ago.

Rest In Peace Harold, I shall see you on the other side.

Love, Dorothy Lee and Family
