

Mr. Harold Leroy Young

July 13, 1937 - February 21, 2014

Harold Leroy Young, 76, of Ochelata, died Friday with his family by his side in Ochelata.

Leroy was born July 13, 1937 the son of Minard William and Mary Irene (Eastman) Young in Bartlesville. The family moved to Ochelata when he was in the third grade. Leroy joined the army reserve during his senior year of high school and received his basic training in Fort Chafee. Leroy graduated from Ochelata high school in 1957 and married his high school sweetheart Juanita J. Gardner on March 15, 1958. They made their home in Ochelata before moving to Culver City, Ca for six years then to the Oklahoma City area before returning to Ochelata. Leroy retired after thirty four years with Reda Pump.

Leroy was known for his strong work ethic often times working more than one job. He was a volunteer firefighter with the Ochelata Volunteer Fire Department, most of his adult life. He loved to fish and hunt and enjoyed time spent with family at the cabin on grand lake. He will be dearly missed.

Leroy is survived by his wife Juanita J. Young, five children Rebecca Louise Price of Ochelata, Mary Lucille Young of Bartlesville, Donna Marie Young of Bixby, William Lee Young of Ochelata and Juanita Sue Williams of Dewey, two sisters Melita Virden of Ochelata and Agnes Helen Buttman is preceded in death by his parents, two grandchildren, William Leroy Magee and Jeniffer

Rose Price, one great grandson DeAngelo Michael Magee, five brothers Minard, Henry, Junior, Ralph and Forrest and two sisters Loretta Hoey and Doris Gardner.

Memorial services for Leroy will be held on Saturday, March 1, 2014, at 10 a.m. in the Ochelata Elementary School Gym. Rev. Gary Burd will officiate. Arrangements are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home. Online condolences may be left at www.davisfamilyfuneralhome.com.
