

Hazel Lou Fisher

October 19, 1948 - November 15, 2022

Hazel Lou Fisher, 74, of Bartlesville, passed away on Tuesday, November 15, 2022, at her home.

Hazel was born October 19, 1948, in Bartlesville, to William Wright Pollan and Grace Bonnie (Stevens) Smart Pollan. She attended Dewey Public Schools.

Hazel married Carl L. Fisher, Sr., on February 14, 1966, in Bartlesville, and to this union two children were born, Mary and Carl. In their early years, Hazel stayed home to care for her children. After her children were older, she attended beauty college and became a beautician, a profession she enjoyed for 25 years. She enjoyed styling ladies' hair in the nursing home during her profession.

She loved to sew, especially blankets, and last year she made 120 blankets, which she donated some of them to nursing homes. Her family cherish the many blankets she made as gifts for them through the years. Her grandchildren remember her making Halloween costumes.

Hazel was a kind and generous woman. When her husband Carl was ill with cancer, Hazel was completely devoted to him through those difficult years of his illness. Carl preceded her in death in 2000.

Hazel was all about family and loved them dearly. She had a heart of gold and will be dearly missed.

Hazel is survived by her two children, Mary Jo Hailey of Bartlesville, and Carl L. Fisher Jr. of Claremore; her companion for the last 10 years, Earl Radford; her sister, Deloris Cook; best friend and sister-in-law, Helen Shaffer; grandchildren, Amber Sanders, Tyler Sanders, Deidre Shaffer, Kaylee Ledford, Amy Jo Hailey; great-grandchildren, Stormy Barnes, Gannon Tafolla, Kaiman Tafolla, Blaze Sanders, Evan Sanders, Lance Sanders, Kindal Steeves, Kaylin Harbour, Ruger Virden, Ryland Virden, Colton Virden, Hogan Virden, Naomi Shaffer, Eden Shaffer, Frank Ledford Jr., Elizabeth Fisher; great-great-grandchild, Narrelli Barnes; Earl's daughters, Jessie, Michelle and Stephanie, and their numerous children. In addition to her husband, Carl, she was preceded in death by her parents; sister Mary Olds and two grandsons, Zachery J. Barnes and Zachary Fisher.
