“ My condolences to all of Helen’s children. I really thought the most of your mom. My name is Kathy Tierney Cain and I lived down the street from you on Avondale. For us it was more a speedway than a street.

Babysitting at your house was always one of my favorites because you guys all acted so awesome and I never had a problem with you. That is because of how you were raised by your parents. I also liked the magazines your mom read, like True Romance. All we got at the Tierney house were Family Circle and Good Housekeeping. L O L.

As an adult, I would see Helen (often hanging around with her sister around town) and they were always happy and having fun together. She always took the time to catch me up on your lives and her love for you always shined. I never saw Helen not be positive even when she had some heart breaks.

I hope your memories give you some happiness during this hard time. And know that your mom lived her life to the fullest .
