

Homer Charles Hall

October 16, 1968 - June 9, 2017

Homer Charles Hall was born October 16, 1968 in Bartlesville, OK, the son of Barbara Jean (Straley) and Homer Felix Hall. He grew up and received his education through the 10th grade in Bartlesville. He worked various trades throughout his lifetime including painting, roofing, mechanic work and hotel maintenance. His last several years were spent battling congestive heart failure and living life to its fullest. He spent the last week of his life doing what he loved to do - and that was spending time with family and friends - particularly his two granddaughters, Brenley Kay, age 6 and Aubrianna Jo, age 3.

Survivors include his wife, together since the age of 18 - Melanie Kay Manley, his son, Chance Seth Jakob Manley of the home, daughter, Brittany and husband Coty Jones of Ft. Smith, AR. He was blessed with granddaughters, Brenley and AJ of Ft. Smith, AR. Also surviving is sister, Hazle Straley of Bartlesville, brother, Bob Straley of Ochelata and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, son, Trey Jakob Hall and sister, Edith.

In keeping with Homer's loving and generous spirit, the family made the decision that helped him give the gift of life through donation of skin and bone tissue along with heart valves through Life Share Oklahoma. He and his family would encourage you to consider organ, bone or tissue donation as well.

We will not say goodbye today, only see you again soon. . . in our hearts forever.

Melanie- I don't know your grief but my heart breaks for you. Know that you are on my prayers to find peace and understanding.
Brittany and Chance- your grief is one that I know all too well. The world is not the same and you feel like your heart will never finish breaking. I'm praying for both of you to find peace as well and the knowledge that he's no longer having to fight. Brittany, i pray for the girls as well. I'm happy that they got to know their Papa, even if it was for a short while.

I share with you the agony of your grief, The anguish of your heart finds echo in my own. I know I cannot enter all you feel Nor bear with you the burden of your pain. I can but offer what my love does give, The strength of caring, The warmth of one who seeks to understand The silent storm-swept barrenness of so great a loss.
This I do in quiet ways, That on your lonely path You may not walk alone. --Howard Thurman
