

Mrs. Hwa Cha Edwards

May 7, 1952 - October 26, 2013

Mrs. Hwa Cha Edwards, 61, of Tulsa, died Saturday in Tulsa after a brave almost two-year battle with cancer.

Hwa Cha was born on May 7, 1952, in Chunchon, South Korea; she was the third of six children born to Chong Ki Su and An Mun Kyu. She was raised and educated in Korea and her two children were born in Korea. Hwa Cha was united in marriage with Felteus Edwards on April 21, 1987 while he was stationed in Korea with the United States Air Force. On August 15, 2000, Felteus preceded her in death. The family then settled briefly in Baton Rouge, LA and Ochelata, OK, before moving to Tulsa in 2001.

Hwa Cha was a very loving person. She greeted people with a warm big smile and hug. Friends and family loved her sense of humor and caring spirit. She was a very skilled seamstress and cosmetologist; she often used her skills to help others. She enjoyed hiking, gardening, cooking, and spending time with the family. She also loved the Lord; she served as a deacon in Korea and in Tulsa with the Korean church. Most of all she was a loving mother and cherished her children very much. She will be dearly missed.
