

Ira Lee Haughn

October 7, 1939 - January 26, 2021

Mr. Ira Lee Haughn of Bartlesville, OK passed into eternal rest at 9:38 a.m., January 26, 2021 at the family home.

Ira was born October 7, 1939, the son of Oscar & Velma (Davis) Haughn. He was raised and educated in Caney, Kansas, graduating with the Class of 1957. After trying out other employment adventures, Ira found his true calling in 1972 when he began life riding wide open spaces as a cowboy tending to cattle and then later in 1995, adding the wild horse program to his routine. His career as a ranch manager spanned 35 years with Tadpole Cattle Company and an additional 7 years with the Gallery Ranch.

He married Crystal Ralph-Haughn on September 23, 2000. She survives of the home. Other survivors include sons Kaleb Ralph of Bartlesville, Brad Haughn and wife Debbie Decker-Murphy of Broken Arrow, OK; Kevin Haughn and Sheryl Fitch of Coweta, OK; Chris & Sherry Haughn of Coweta, OK; a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren; a brother, Robert Haughn and wife Sheila of Ponca City; sister Delores Barnhart and husband Jack of Ottawa, KS; nieces, nephews and a multitude of friends.

Ira was preceded in death by his parents, Oscar and Velma (Davis) Haughn, one brother and 4 sisters.

In his last breaths, he had family by his side as he met his divine appointment with the Lord. Ira's trust in God and his belief in the decency of people is a legacy he will always leave behind for others.

The entire family would like to express sincere appreciation to Sam Hill and his amazing team at Comforting Hands Hospice for their quick response and steadfast support during our time of need. Between the amount of love and compassion we received from their phenomenal team of nurses – we are left with peace and gratitude.

“ My sincere condolences.

Ira was surely one of a kind. From roses to rough humor, quick-of-wit, Ira could turn a phrase. Sometimes it landed dizzy and upside-down. He was well read and often red in search of an oblong box. Not too tall. Not too long. Full and cold. He was a first class cook on the grill and often up and in someone's grill. His apron was unique and it resembled a stiff....idea. It was funny each time it swung-forth.

Ira was second to none in intelligence. What he knew he knew. What he didn't know, yet told, you'd never know it. He missed his calling when he refused an audition for feature film. Augustus had nothing on Ira. And when he called his mule out of the pasture, of an evening, I recall he gave it to Miss Crystal. Now he rides boldly with the pioneers of the west. With free-roaming horses where they belong. Big John somewhere there too.

Farewell as you ride on those twisting Sooner winds in God's country. Farewell Ira. You have crossed-over.
