

Mrs. Isabel M. Pratt

December 8, 1926 - October 22, 2014

Isabel M. Pratt, 87, longtime resident of Bartlesville, died Wednesday, Oct. 22, 2014, in Bartlesville.

Isabel was born the daughter of Henry Bradshaw and Opal Willie (Seyler) Cowan on Dec. 8, 1926, in Blackwell, OK. At a young age, Isabel moved east with her family to Bartlesville. As a teenager Isabel worked as a waitress at local restaurants. She was united in marriage with Richard Coleman and one son was born. Her husband preceded her in death in 1973, and their son preceded her in death on July 15, 2014. Isabel had remarried and after 25 years of marriage, Norman Pratt preceded her in death in 2007.

Isabel was a longtime member of First Assembly of God Church (Spirit Church) near downtown Bartlesville and she was an active volunteer in its youth ministries for many years. She worked most recently at Keepsake Candles and did a lot of babysitting. Her community volunteer work included the Boys and Girls Club and the Westside Adult Nutrition project. She touched many lives and will be dearly missed.

Isabel is survived by one brother, John Cowan and Rosalie of Bartlesville, four sisters, Georgia Watkins of Sand Springs Alice Norton and Delbert of Sapulpa, Donna Smith of Bartlesville and Shirley Vaughn and James of Bartlesville, one daughter in law, Neva Coleman of Bartlesville and many nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her husbands, Richard Coleman and Norman Pratt, son Richard Thomas Sherman Coleman, one brother, Timothy Cowan and three sisters, Patricia Walker, Uleta Faye Cowan and Juanita Farrell.

Memorial services will be held 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 26, 2014, at Spirit Church with Rev. Darryl Wooten officiating. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home.
