Jack was born the son of Alonzo and Thelma (Topping) Jones on March 13, 1937, in Oglesby, OK. Thelma died when Jack was just 7 years old and Alonzo moved the family to Wyandotte St. in Dewey where Jack would make his home for most of his life. They lived in Bartlesville before moving to California for Jack to work with Shirley's father a short while before returning to Dewey. Jack started his 32-year career with Reda Pump in 1967, retiring from Schlumberger in 1998. His son Dallas Jones preceded him in death in 2007.

Jacks had a love for people especially his extended family who reached out to him and cared for young Jack in his formative years following his mother's death. Jack was a wonderful Dad and grandfather to his children and grandchildren. He was a member of the Fraternal order of Eagles Aeire 610 since 1977. Fishing and hunting dogs were his passion for many years. But most of all Jack loved his family and spending quality time with them.
