

Jackie Lee Chitwood

November 4, 1946 - September 5, 2021

Jackie Chitwood was a loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She left this earth to be with her Lord & Savior on September 5, 2021, at the age of 74.

She was born Jacqueline Lee Kimbell to James and Margaret Kimbell on November 4, 1946, in San Francisco, California. She was their third child after son Jimmy and daughter Joanie. She had two younger sisters, Janice and Jill. They were a close-knit family and Jackie was raised from humble beginnings in the small town of Novato.

As a young girl, Jackie had a daughter Jonni who she selflessly gave up for adoption and was later reunited with. After graduating Novato High School, Jackie met her soon-to-be husband Gary Chitwood. They married on August 28, 1965. Together, they had three children: Rebecca, Gary Jr., and Karen. The family lived in Livermore and San Jose before settling and building their life in Redding, California, in 1974.

Jackie graduated from Shasta College in 1987 with a medical assistant license and retired from Shasta Community Health Center in 2011. Though they were divorced for some time, Jackie and Gary found their way back to each other and remarried on April 9, 2011. They set out and moved to Ramona, Oklahoma, and spent their days together tending to their land and animals. Seeing their love story unfold is a true testament to her faith and many answered prayers. Jackie often referred to Gary as her “sweet husband” who loved her fiercely.

Jackie was a wonderful grandmother to 9 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was so proud of her family and all they had accomplished. She never missed an opportunity to praise them and pour love into them. Since moving to Oklahoma, she spent many summers making her rounds across the country, stopping to visit and spend time with each of her children and grandchildren’s families. They were all the light of her life and brought her so much joy. I saw a quote the other day that said “your grandmother’s prayers are still protecting you today” - this could not be more true for all of Jackie’s grandchildren. She was always faithfully and fervently praying for her family and they will continue to be covered by her prayers for generations.

Jackie was bold in her Christian faith and stood firmly on her beliefs. She took many under her wings: prayerfully ministering, nurturing and encouraging them through all life’s twists and turns. To know Jackie was to know one of the kindest, most genuine hearts on earth.

“ Gary and Family,
We pray the love of GOD engulf each of you during your journey through this unimaginable grief of losing a most important member of your family; your wife, mother, grandmother and best friend, your precious Jackie. Jackie was/is my Sister-in-Christ and I will miss her greatly as will the rest of her extended OKlahoma family. May Jackie’s memory bring each of you much joy in the coming weeks, months and years. May GOD’s Blessings be on each of you. Gene and Clauddea Austin (cousins on Chitwood side of family.

“ Jackie was one of the kindest, most gentle souls I have ever known. Her love for her family and husband was the light of her life, and the prayer of her heart. My heart broke when I heard of her sudden passing, but we know the Lord was with her the whole way into His arms. You are missed, Jackie...yet your love remains and will never have any bounds.

“ Jackie and I had a friendship that started in grade school and continued all of our life's. We shared the many phases of life, marriage, children and moving apart at times. Any time we got together, or spoke, it was like no time had passed and we could always start right where we left off.

We were always there to cheer each other up or share in each other's joy. I will really miss being able to call or text her. She always found the right words no matter what I was going through. I can say in all the years we knew each other, I never remember us not getting along.

We thanked God every day for bringing us together all those years ago.

I don't think either of us thought what it would be like to face life without the other. I know I never did.

She has left a deep void in my life that memories will help fill until we meet again.

I LOVE YOU JACKIE ❤️

“ Jackie, Darleen Lawson and I went to school together in 3rd and part of 4th, in California. Over the years, we wrote back and forth, then to e-mails and last to FaceBook. Loved this trip with her all these years and I will miss her greatly. My heart goes out to all of you.
Love, Martha Bennett Tillett.
