“Daddy, you have been in Heaven with Jesus for 5 years now!!! I miss you with all of my heart!!! Many times through the years I reflect on all of the great times we shared. I remember when I was a tot, you handed me a little kitten. So precious! Now, I am the crazy Cat lady. Lol. I love my cat babies. I remember sledding down the hill on 18th street when it snowed. Fun!!! I remember helping Helen, Cutting her grass and trimming her hedges. Sweet!!! I remember when I used your motorcycle and you thought it was stolen. Sorry for that. I remember when we used to go to College High football games. I remember when You, Roger and I would go fishing at Grand Lake. There was a really steep dip in the road on that drive and you always hit it fast so it felt like a roller coaster. I always giggled. I miss you!!!! your passing was the hardest part of my life. I am soooo much like you daddy. Maria gave me some beautiful wind chimes after you passed. When the wind blows, I hear you singing through them!!! Beautiful! Thank you Daddy for making me!!! Thank you Daddy for giving me strength!!!! Every time I hear thunder in the sky, I know you are in Heaven moving furniture around to help others!!!! I guess I have been keeping my thoughts locked up for awhile. I love you with ALL of my heart!!! I love mom Linda, Kevin and the kiddos!!!! GOD Bless you!!!!

“ Whenever we talked on the phone Jim would say, "well, hi little sister" and I would respond, "Well, hi big brother." And when we finally ran out of things to talk about I would say "love you" and he would say "'love you too." That was a very special moment for both of us. - Demis (Cloe) Johnson OX
