“ There are too many memories to share of our dear Jan. We always looked forward to Jan's day at the shop. She had a great sense of humor and could hold her own when shooting barbs back and forth with Joni and me. My fondest memory of her was when she was coloring her own hair. A friend of hers, a retired nurse as I recall, worked in a beauty supply. She told her what color she needed to buy. Her hair was as orange as a pumpkin. She got mad at Joni and me when we mentioned it. She defended her friend, but Joni asked her if she would rather get hair coaching from a professional hair dresser or a retired nurse. Jan was kind of speechless after that. She let Joni do her colors afterward.

My mom came to the shop at the same time as Jan on Fridays. They loved to talk with each other. Mom and I visited Jan a few times when she was in rehab facilities. Though I haven't seen her in a few years, I think of her often. Love you Jan!!

My sincere condolences go to the whole family. I speak for Joni also as she is away on a family vacation.

Love,
