“ I got to know Janelle peripherally in high school, as we were both part of the "journalism" group. We weren't close friends, but I always saw her as being in a class by herself in terms of her grace and kindness. We got much better acquainted when the two of us worked the day shift at Pizza Hut together the summer after our sophomore year of college, which led to me helping out at her wedding.

I was very sad to hear of her passing. Janelle was one of those people I always knew would make a mark on the world, and it's a shame when a light like that goes out so early.
