Janet was born the daughter of Delbert Fox and Beverly (Woodard) Bolen on June 3, 1963 in Bartlesville, Ok. The family lived in Caney, Ks where she attended elementary school before moving to Dewey. Summer weekends were spent at Grand Lake with her many cousins, they enjoyed games, fishing and swimming and had the best times together. She married Justin Harris and her daughter Jena Lee was born. Later she married Avery Hobson and her son Trey Don was born even though these marriages ended Janet remained good friends with both. Like many of her family Janet worked at Murphy's Steak House for many years as a waitress. Over the years she developed many wonderful relationships with her co workers and customers.

Janet was passionate about supporting her OU and Dallas Cowboy football teams. She enjoyed games and played in poker tournaments, bingo and pool. In her younger days she rode motorcycles and the freedom that comes with the lifestyle. Most of all Janet loved her family, she gave everyone a silly nick name, and everyone called her Aunt Bunny. She will be remembered for her wild and free outlook on life, always fun to be with and cracking everyone up with her outspoken personality. She will be dearly missed.

I also want to say that in her obituary, her brother's name is spelled incorrectly. It's not Dale, it's Del.*
