

Jayne "Sue" Hogue

November 13, 1937 - April 24, 2025

Jayne "Sue" Hogue, 87, went home to her Lord and Savior on April 24, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on November 13, 1937, grew up in Borger, Texas, graduated from Borger High in 1956, met Duain Hogue on a blind date, and married June 8, 1956, a month after graduation. The newlyweds moved to Stillwater, OK, where they both attended college. Duain's geology degree took them to the oil towns of Borger, Odessa, and finally Bartlesville, where they remained for the rest of their lives. Sue and Duain expanded their family during these years with three children (Jeff, Laurie, and Susan). They shared fifty-seven years together before Duain passed in 2013.

Sue was a beacon of warmth and faith, touching countless lives with her kindness and unwavering devotion to Christ. A dedicated member of the Church of Christ, Sue served the congregation and community by sharing the gift of her voice with the Philtones, who traveled the nation representing Phillips Petroleum, and for many weddings and funerals. She taught Bible classes and Vacation Bible School, volunteered with the World Bible School, and cooked innumerable meals for those in need.

Her home was filled with her easy laughter, love, the delicious aroma of her famous yeast rolls and pies, and the sound of her singing hymns as she cared for her family.

Sue is survived by her children, Jeff Hogue, Laurie (Chuck) Garrison, Susan (Bob) Brchan; grandchildren, Reid (Kimberly) Garrison, Cole (Angie) Garrison, Doss (Channing) Garrison, Grant (Dorlyne) Brchan, Sarah (Josh) Newell, Emily Brown, Erin Hogue; and great-grandchildren, Arley, Boden and Briggs Garrison, Emma and Maylee Newell, Callie, Dawson and Brooks Brown, Brynn and Maddy Brchan .

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Duain Hogue; her baby, Michael Duain Hogue; her parents, Lawrence and Jonnie Homesley; her sister, Patricia Day, and many other family members and precious friends.

Sue's legacy of love and faith will live on in all who knew her.

“ Sue was a saint! I have missed spending time with her in Bible class and worship. She was the sweetest lady you could ever meet. I already miss her! Much love to you Jeff, Laurie and Susan! May God grant you comfort in knowing she is with your Dad and loved ones gone before. I can hear her singing with the loved ones from our congregations. Prayers for each of you. I loved her!

Sue was my grandmother. We called her "nanny." She was loved by everyone who knew her. She always spread joy with her beautiful smile and personality, honored Christ in all she did, and was a caring and loving wife, mother, and grandmother. I will very much miss her, but know she is home with Christ and family. Thank you for all the wonderful years Nanny!
