

Jeremy Sherbon-Cowan

June 8, 1980 - November 8, 2014

Celebration of Life for Jeremy Michael Sherbon "Cowan" will be held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, November 18, 2014 at East Cross United Methodist Church with Associate Pastor Chad Perceful officiating. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Walker-Brown Funeral Home.

Jeremy Michael Sherbon "Cowan" was born June 8, 1980 in Ponca City, OK. Jeremy graduated from Bartlesville High School in 1999, and continued his education at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Health in 2004. Since graduation Jeremy has worked in various positions including a health promotions position at INTEGRIS Baptist Medical Center. Jeremy is best remembered for his great personality and his contagious smile. He was kindhearted from early childhood until his last day. Jeremy was a good all around athlete, who was passionate about wrestling while competing in high school. He loved the outdoors. Jeremy wanted to pursue a life of helping others, which is why he chose a degree in Health Promotions. Even through all his struggles with addictions, Jeremy's goal in life was to reach out and help others. He is now at peace in the arms of Our Lord, free of pain and hurt.

Jeremy is survived by his parents Tim and Cathy (Clegg) Cowan and sister, Kaci Cowan all of Bartlesville, grandmother Dot Cowan and grandmother Pauline Sherbon both of Ponca City, aunt Beth Hammil and husband J.D. of Frisco, TX, great-grandparents Beryl and Mel Harris of Pittsburg, KS, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends that loved him.

Jeremy was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Ernie and Joyce Clegg and paternal grandfathers Ben Cowan and Jerry John Sherbon. Honorary Pall Bearers include his many friends that were like brothers and sisters to Jeremy. There are far too many to list.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations to Alpha 2 (nonprofit), 1608 North Main Street, PO Box 369, Tonkawa, OK 74653 or Second Chance Sober Living www.secondchancesoberliving.org. Both of these organizations loved and cared for Jeremy. The family would like to pay forward some of their kindness.

Honorary Casket Bearers are: Luke Collins, Chris Dum, Dave McPhillips, Kevin Cottom, Mickey Uphold, Grant Bonham, Danielle Alexandar Daniel, Jennifer Ringeisen Mickelson, Brandon Hastings, Adam Ppool.

It's so difficult to discuss Jeremy in the past tense. I will miss him and his contagious smile. He is my older cousin and he always watched over me. When growing up we spent every other weekend together. Brian (the oldest cousin), Jeremy and myself were inseparable during his visit. Brian and I always hated when Sunday afternoon arrived and Jeremy had to leave. We would count the days until his next visit. Jeremy helped shape the person I am today. He instilled courage, compassion and love. Now that he is gone, I feel like a part of the little girl I was is gone. I miss him so much and have some peace to know he is sitting with our papa, Goob and the Heavenly Father. Xoxo

Continually praying for my second family. I will always remember Jeremy from the ski trip when he let me play the role of an annoying little sister all week long.. I'll never forget that Jeremy. Thank you for the unending support and love from all of you throughout our lives. Out of all the people in this world, we are so lucky to have met the Cowan family.

Cathy, Tim, and Kaci, I did not know Jeremy; I can tell, however, from the comments made by those who knew him that he was a kind and loving person. I am so saddened by your loss. I pray God's peace and comfort will fill you as you walk through this. "I go to prepare a place for you and where I go you shall be also." Jesus has just the perfect place for Jeremy. Much love to a dear family.

Cathy, I am so sorry for the loss of your most precious boy. My heart hurts for him and for your family. He truly did have such a good heart and you could not help but love him. I have so many memories of him with Chris and Jonathan doing what boys do, sports and girls! I last saw him at Chris' wedding and he looked so handsome. He is still a precious boy and will always be in our hearts. I hope you and your family will find peace and know that through this tragedy Jeremy just might save another. Peace be with you Jeremy.

I loved Jeremy from knowing him in Oklahoma from 2001 to 2005. We met while he was a personal trainer at Bally's, and he visited me in Minnesota in late 2006. He always made me and others laugh and smile - was encouraging, fun, and happy. We had a lot of inside jokes, and I don't remember him ever being angry, unless play angry. I'm so very sorry to hear of his death and am thinking and praying for the family. God Bless and we will all miss him. I believe he's in Heaven. Positive memories - he encouraged me; invited me to Lifechurch and my roommate came and met her now husband; they have a beautiful family of five. When we were in Minnesota he joked and laughed with my family and we made up inside jokes about a gingerbread house - when he left he left an encouraging note under my pillow. I will remember him and his loving spirit; praying for his other friends and family in this difficult and hard time - for ease of pain, and to remember him and his life.

Mr. Tim, Mrs. Cathy & Kaci I am so sorry to hear of Jeremy's passing. I have so many wonderful memories of him from childhood and all the summers our families spent together. Jeremy was always at the heart of the fun and the joy, quick with a joke and that great smile of his. He truly brought happiness to the moments he was in. I am sad and sorry that we lost touch over the years, but he will forever be a bright spot in my memory. He is an angel now and no doubt looking out for us all.

Cathy, Tim and Kaci... I am sorry for the loss of your son and brother, but I am so thankful that his suffering is over. No matter how confused or lost he may have been, we know he was a Christian and that God will take care of him and restore him so that we can all be with him again one day. I am also thankful that your family can finally begin to put these last few years behind you. I look forward to the days when you can feel the joy in remembering the fun-loving goofy guy that we all knew and loved. Please take the time to comfort one another and heal as a family. We all love you and look forward to spending many more years together remembering the good times we have had with our best friends, Cathy, Tim, Kaci and Jeremy!

I'm so sorry for your loss. I just wanted to tell you all I am thinking of you and know that a loss like this is hard to handle for the ones that loved him the most. I just wanted to say that moving here my senior year was a difficult change for me, but Jeremy was one of the nicest people I had ever met. Always asked how I was* doing and always made me feel a part of the group. He was always so kind and he always made me feel welcome in all events I was ever at. He had a good heart and I will always remember how how extremely nice he was to me, there are few people in this world that talk from the heart and he was one of them. Rest in peace my friend.

Not knowing Jeremy when he was young, I've really cherished the time looking at childhood pictures, seeing his high school wrestling gear, his collection of match box cars, and so many momentos of his life. Jeremy, I enjoyed the few times we talked and am so sorry you struggled with the addiction. You always knew you had a family that loves you and they will miss you terribly. I am so sorry to hear that you lost a loved one. I can see that Jeremy will be missed by his family and friends, but he will not be forgotten by our heavenly father Jehovah. We often wonder can the dead really live again. The Bible says there is going to be a resurrection (John 5:28,29). This means that Jeremy will be given a fresh new start with the prospect of living forever (Psalms 37:29). I hope this will bring comfort knowing that you have an opportunity to see him again to share more wonderful times together.
