No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind.
However, take comfort in knowing that Uncle Bucky is now resting in the arms of our lord. My fondest memory of uncle Bucky is as if it were yesterday, letting my drive that old white van he had. Love you uncle buck! Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. -John 14:1-3

Death may take you away in the physical, but it can never take you away from my heart and memory. I love you uncle Bucky. You are now in a better place, away from all possibilities of hurt and pain, they will no longer crowd your mind, you are now at ease. Until we meet again, please look down upon us and keep us safe. Xoxo Loge and Beck my heart goes out to you two and to the rest of Buck's family. We have lots of sweet and happy/funny memories. I laugh every time I visualize Buck mowing the neighbor's yard on his riding lawnmower. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for anybody. Without a doubt I know how much he loved you and Logan. Buck's another great soul that will be tremendously missed by us! To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord (II Corinthians 5:8). I love you guys! I pray God's comfort for you and know that I am here for you.
