

Jimmie Loyal Hill

June 3, 1994 - October 16, 2022

Jimmie Loyal Hill, 28, of Copan, passed away unexpectedly from a car accident on Sunday, October 16, 2022.

Jimmie was born June 3, 1994, in Bartlesville, to Martin Lee and Dawn Marie (Leiker) Hill. He attended Dewey High School and shortly after he began working as a heavy equipment operator for Oilfield Pipe and Supply in Dewey.

On March 27, 2012, Jimmie married Shasta Nicole White and they shared many happy years together. His relationship with Jessica Villarreal started in 2016. Jimmie adored his 11 children and they were his pride and joy. Family was everything to him.

He had a big heart and was ornery. Even from a young age, Jimmie was quick to play pranks on people. Shasta and Jessica said Jimmie would leave the sprayer on in the sink, so when they turned on the water, they would get wet. His sister Reba shared a story about playing cops and robbers with him when they were young. He taped her hands together with electrical tape and their mother had to cut her free. His father, Martin, said Jimmie cut all the wires on Martin's new mower and brought the wire cutters to Martin to say he did not cut them. One day when he was stuck in a mud hole, Reba was trying to help push him out and he floored it, soaking her head to toe.

Jimmie would always have a goofy grin on his face with his tongue sticking out while playing in the mud with his truck. He wasn't done until his truck was covered.

Jimmie's hobbies included hunting and fishing, anything outdoors. He was a Ford man and enjoyed tinkering with cars, except his wife's car, he teased, because it was a Chevy. He was fun-loving and liked to help people by fixing their cars. Jimmie was very loved by his family and will be greatly missed.

Survivors include the mothers of his children, Shasta Hill and Jessica Villarreal; his father and stepmother, Martin Lee and Stephenie Hill; his parents, Heather and Lance Ford; Jimmie's stepdaughter, Mackenzie Truitt; his 11 children, Cambree, Brailey, Briar, Brinlee, Jackson, Colton, Dustie, Camrynn, Brooklynn, Dixie and Daisy Hill. In addition, Jimmie is survived by five sisters, Reba Bright and her husband Tim, Sierra Hill, Mary Price, Rachel Price, and Ashlee Ford; two brothers, Samuel Hill and Sawyer Hill; grandparents, Sheryl Layton and her husband Floyd, Arlene Snellgrove and her husband Robert, Teresa Stewart and her husband Roger, and Richard Ford and his wife Theresa; aunts and uncles, Michelle Lacy and her husband David, Sheila Kreuzburg and her husband Steve, Amanda Leiker, Emily Palmer and her husband Hunter, Richard Ford and his wife Trisha, Christal Reese and husband Mark, Scotty Fowler and wife Tonya, Clinton Hill and wife Glenda, Kenneth Young and wife Tiffany; and nieces and nephews, Addison, Xavier, Zayne, Seth and Sean.

Visitation will be held on Friday, October 21, 2022, from 10-8 p.m. at the Davis Family Funeral Home - Dewey Chapel, 918-534-3030, 113 S. Osage (Hwy. 75), Dewey. In lieu of flowers, donations to help the family with funeral expenses may be made to Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel.

“ I didn't know Jimmie. I'm Jessica Villarreal's aunt and want to share my condolences for such an untimely death that left behind young children and Jimmie's grieving partners, loving people left without his support. I hope those who cared for Jimmie will extend their care and support to those who need it most now and going forward as they honor his memory. Rest In Peace, Jimmie. I know you were loved and memories will be cherished by your children and your partners. Alice Bouley

“ I grew up with Jimmie. We grew up down the street from each other and were in the same class at Dewey High. Jimmie was a great guy and a great friend. Although we went our separate ways after high school, it was always nice to run in to Jimmie somewhere in town and catch up. His ornery grin was one of a kind. Rest easy old friend. Condolences from the Hudgens family
