“ I remember when Joan first entered BHRC, she was so sweet and tried to be more independent than she was supposed to be at the time. One afternoon when I came on shift I was going around asking everyone what they would like for supper and when I got to Joan she said "Oh I don't want any of that slop they feed us here, I think I'll have some soup from my fridge" it was the funniest thing to me because I had never heard anyone call their food slop before and when I giggled she started laughing too and told me I was more than welcome to come join her for dinner if I got the chance. From then on she became one of my favorite People in this world. I Love you Joan and thank you for taking such great care of me while I was taking care of you, thank you for looking after me and my son and remembering us till the end. Rest in Peace and know this world is sad we lost you but the heavens are so excited to have gained such a wonderful angel ❤️ ”
