John Everett Shearhart, 63, of Bartlesville, died Thursday in Bartlesville. John was born December 13, 1953, in Wichita, Kansas, and grew up in Coffeyville. “ The lost of John has left a whole in many lives and will be missed. Our prayers will be with family and friends during this time. The memory we have, is of all he did in Scouts and how much he enjoyed gong to the land, as we have heard it called. Beauty is goodness made manifest to the senses. The combination of several elements that, when put together into the right form are pleasing. John saw beauty around him and in things he did. Goodness is that which works for the benefit of others. John also had much goodness for if you called on him for help he would work it into his day. Bill and Carolyn Brown
