

Judy Fidler

September 1, 1944 - October 17, 2014

Judy Leah Fidler was born September 1, 1944 in Joplin, MO to Luther and Judy (Comstock) Guinn.

Judy was a member of Matoaka Baptist Church. To know her was to love her.

Judy is survived by her two sons; John Fidler Jr. and Anthony and wife Deana Fidler all of Bartlesville. Five daughters; Stacy and husband Heath Wilson of Bartlesville, Carla Spencer and fiance Jerry Gallatin of Nowata, Judy and husband Brian Lorensen of Dewey, Tracy and husband Rodney Mehl of Bartlesville, Dana and husband Scott Stefanopolous of Tyro, KS. She was blessed with nineteen grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Billie Murray of Nowata and Patricia Tatum of Chelsea, numerous nieces, nephews and many friends.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, husband John Fidler, brother Michael Guinn and sister Kathy Shrum. Casket Bearers will be: Clayton Fidler, Ceidyn Harris, Hayden Farmer, Tony Fidler, Adam Harris, Brian Lorensen, Nick Barnes, Rodney Mehl, Eric Farmer, Heath Wilson and John Fidler.