June Harrison of Bartlesville, OK, died Saturday in Bartlesville, after 71 years of faithful, fulfilling life for her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

June Allison Harrison was born the daughter of Elkanah Raeborn and Magdeline LaVern (Furr) Stoddard in Nevada City, CA, on August 23, 1945. Her father died when she was only 9 and the family moved to Bryant, TX, to live with her father's mother before moving again when she was 16 to Oakridge, TN, to be closer to her mother's family. After graduating from Oakridge High in 1962, June went on to Brigham Young University in Provo, UT, to study music. She married Joseph Marshall Stephenson in 1965 and they raised three daughters and a son in Layton, UT. June went back to school when she was 38 to study to be a paralegal. She worked for local law firms before starting her 14-year career with the state of Utah and finally retiring in 1998. Later, she moved to Bartlesville in 2004.

June was a wonderful mother and doting grandmother. She claimed her children's and grandchildren's friends as her own and was known by all as Mom or Grammy. She loved caring for her grandkids in retirement. She was an avid reader and her passions included music, singing, QVC shopping, and art. June was known as the best cook and candy maker, particularly for her famous Christmas candy. She loved the Lord her Savior, faithfully serving Him in the church on earth, and she will be singing His praises in Heaven.

“ Aunt June was by far, the most loving person I've ever known. In all of my years on this planet, I never saw her speak an unkind word to anyone. I know this world has lost an angel on earth; however, she is now with all of her sisters, her sweet daughter Wendy, and her parents. We will all miss her here on earth; however, she will live forever in our hearts!
