

Katherine Marie Radosevich

July 24, 1927 - July 16, 2013

Katherine Marie Radosevich went to her heavenly home on Tuesday, July 16, 2013.

Services will be held at 12:00-noon, Friday, July 19, 2013 at Redeemer Lutheran Church with Reverend Mark Carter officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Walker-Brown Funeral Home.

Marie was born July 24, 1927 in Vincent, Iowa to Thomas Cornelius and Anna Gerine (Edmond) Wilson. She married Frank John Radosevich on January 7, 1950 in Des Moines, Iowa. Marie was a mother and homemaker until her children left home. Before her husband retired, she went to work at Phillips Petroleum Co. and dedicated 12 years of service to the internal auditing department. She was a long time member of Redeemer Lutheran Church, member of the Red Hat Society and helped her husband Frank with Salvation Army activities. Marie loved: God, her husband, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, friends, rooting for the underdog, eating sweets and her dog Charlee.

Marie is survived by her children, Reverend Paul and wife Mary Jo Radosevich, Debbie Folkers and Tom Radosevich. She was blessed with 19 grandchildren and spouses: Katherine Parker, Stephanie and Joe Hammond, Jared and Shannon Radosevich, Joseph and Emma Radosevich, Rae and John Steel, Abby and Mike Knight, Sara, Hannah, Justus, Jedidiah, Grace, Samantha Jo, Jamin, John Vincent, Matt and Lauren Richards, Denielle and Kevin Bullard, Mitchell, Brenna, Brad and Jennifer Henderson, 10 great-grandchildren, one sister, Evelyn Caldwell and many friends.

Marie was preceded in death by her husband Frank Radosevich, daughter, Teri Hulette and brother, Vincent Wilson. Everyone would agree that she was one of the most loving women that they had ever met; she will be truly missed by many and will never be forgotten. Marie will be forever in our minds and in our hearts.

Tribute Wall

“ Posted by Trish Lutherbeck from Tulsa, Oklahoma
I just found out about the loss of my sweet friend. She happily welcomed me into her life when I was introduced to her by my good friend Mildred Wisdom, at Town Village. We spent every Thursday having lunch together, Marie, Mildred and I, chatting about family and pets (well, mostly Charlee), and the lives we have lived. After lunch, and before, the three of us would work on puzzles and play with Charlee. After losing Mildred just after the beginning of the year, Marie and I spent time together sharing our grief over our dear friend. The loss was difficult, but we had each other. And Charlee :) Now it's just me, but I am blessed to have had the opportunity to know Marie. She will be greatly missed. But I know she is happy to be home with her family and friend, Mildred. Love you and miss you, Marie! Thanks for letting me be your friend.
09/17/2013 at 01:10pm

---

Dffh Dewey Chapel - January 18, 2019 at 05:02 PM

“ Posted by Brenna Folkers from Tulsa, Oklahoma

Today we are here to celebrate the wonderful life of an amazing woman. She had a very happy soul. She was all giddy and ready to move into a house down the street from my mom's house. She told everyone at Town Village that she was moving into a house, stayed up until almost midnight. This house was perfect for her, but God had another plan. He knows that he has an absolutely perfect home for her - a home that has her loving husband, family, and friends. She was welcomed with open arms. All of us have been blessed with the presence of this beautiful, amazing, and wonderful woman in our lives. She was a light in a world tainted with darkness. She had such a great heart that loved everyone no matter what the situation. Today she is here with us. She is in our hearts and always in our minds. She will live on forever through us and when it is our time to come home, we will see her again. We will see her happy and she will welcome us with open arms. She was an amazing grandmother to everyone, an even more amazing mother, and an angel on earth. She will forever be remembered and more importantly, she will be eternally loved.

07/18/2013 at 02:19am

Posted by Eloise Dycus from Tulsa, Oklahoma

My name is Barbara Woltz, and I am writing this on my own behalf and also for my mother, Eloise Dycus. My Mom lives at Town Village, and Marie was one of her best friends. Mom and Marie ate together every day and worked jigsaw puzzles together. Marie was one of those people who you just knew was special from the moment you met her. She always greeted me with warmth and enthusiasm, even though we didn't see each other that often. My Mom and I are going to miss her.

07/19/2013 at 05:10pm

Posted by Debbie Folkers from Tulsa, Oklahoma

Today we would have been celebrating Mom's 86th birthday. I am sad that she won't be sitting down to a big birthday cake this year with 86 candles. Ok who am I kidding. . . with the numbers 8 & 6 are the only two candles that would be lit. She would have really enjoyed that dessert! I have been so busy taking care of details and things. . . but really wanted to take time today to reflect on what an incredible person Katherine Marie Wilson Radosevich was. She lived her life so well. She was a very loving, honest and caring person to everyone. And she was so sweet and witty and comfortable to be with. No one ever felt they had to pretend in front of her. She loved you no matter what. She was not judgemental and was an example of a good Christian women. She loved to laugh, have fun, and she was compassionate and so loving. People absolutely loved her! I loved her and will always be thinking of her. It will be hard to get used to not having her here. I know she is in heaven with all of her loved ones who preceeded her. . . Dad and Teri and her Dad and Mother. What a party for her today!! She is in the presence of our loving God and living the promise of eternal life. I really can't think of anywhere else she would rather be today. I already miss her so terribly but know this helps. Love you forever and always Mom!! Your loving daughter Debbie

07/24/2013 at 02:49pm

Posted by Debbie Folkers from Tulsa, Oklahoma
And just an add on to the other message. . . how could I forget her brother Vincent Wilson. . my uncle Vince? They are laughing and joking and having a great time I'm sure.
07/24/2013 at 03:08pm

---

Dffh Dewey Chapel - January 18, 2019 at 05:02 PM

DA

“ 09/17/13 01:10 pm
Lutherbeck, Trish
Tulsa, OK

I just found out about the loss of my sweet friend. She happily welcomed me into her life when I was introduced to her by my good friend Mildred Wisdom, at Town Village. We spent every Thursday having lunch together, Marie, Mildred and I, chatting about family and pets (well, mostly Charlee), and the lives we have lived. After lunch, and before, the three of us would work on puzzles and play with Charlee. After losing Mildred just after the beginning of the year, Marie and I spent time together sharing our grief over our dear friend. The loss was difficult, but we had each other. And Charlee :) Now it's just me, but I am blessed to have had the opportunity to know Marie. She will be greatly missed. But I know she is happy to be home with her family and friend, Mildred. Love you and miss you, Marie! Thanks for letting me be your friend.

---

davisfamilyfuneralhome - December 20, 2018 at 11:04 AM

DA

“ 07/18/13 02:19 am

Folkers, Brenna

Tulsa, OK

Today we are here to celebrate the wonderful life of an amazing woman. She had a very happy soul. She was all giddy and ready to move into a house down the street from my mom's house. She told everyone at Town Village that she was moving into a house, stayed up until almost midnight. This house was perfect for her, but God had another plan. He knows that he has an absolutely perfect home for her - a home that has her loving husband, family, and friends. She was welcomed with open arms. All of us have been blessed with the presence of this beautiful, amazing, and wonderful woman in our lives. She was a light in a world tainted with darkness. She had such a great heart that loved everyone no matter what the situation. Today she is here with us. She is in our hearts and always in our minds. She will live on forever through us and when it is our time to come home, we will see her again. We will see her happy and she will welcome us with open arms. She was an amazing grandmother to everyone, an even more amazing mother, and an angel on earth. She will forever be remembered and more importantly, she will be eternally loved.

07/19/13 05:10 pm

Dycus, Eloise

Tulsa, OK

My name is Barbara Woltz, and I am writing this on my own behalf and also for my mother, Eloise Dycus. My Mom lives at Town Village, and Marie was one of her best friends. Mom and Marie ate together every day and worked jigsaw puzzles together. Marie was one of those people who you just knew was special from the moment you met her. She always greeted me with warmth and enthusiasm, even though we didn't see each other that often. My Mom and I are going to miss her.

07/24/13 02:49 pm

Folkers, Debbie

Tulsa, OK

Today we would have been celebrating Mom's 86th birthday. I am sad that she won't be sitting down to a big birthday cake this year with 86 candles. Ok who am I kidding. . . with the numbers 8 & 6 are the only two candles that would be lit. She would have really enjoyed that dessert! I have been so busy taking care of details and things. . . but really wanted to take time today to reflect on what an incredible person Katherine Marie Wilson Radosevich was. She lived her life so well. She was a very loving, honest and caring person to everyone. And she was so sweet and witty and comfortable to be with. No one ever felt they had to pretend in front of her. She loved you no matter what. She was not judgemental and was an example of a good Christian women. She loved to laugh, have fun, and she was compassionate and so loving. People absolutely loved her! I loved her and will always be thinking of her. It will be hard to get used to not having her here. I know she is in heaven with all of her loved ones who preceeded her. . . Dad and Teri and her Dad and Mother. What a party for her today!! She is in the presence of our loving God and living the promise of eternal life. I really can't think of anywhere else she would rather be today. I already miss her so terribly but know this helps. Love you forever and always Mom!! Your loving daughter Debbie

07/24/13 03:08 pm

Folkers, Debbie

Tulsa, OK

And just an add on to the other message. . . how could I forget her brother Vincent Wilson. . my uncle Vince? They are laughing and joking and having a great time I'm sure.

09/17/13 01:10 pm

Lutherbeck, Trish

Tulsa, OK

davisfamilyfuneralhome - December 20, 2018 at 11:03 AM