“ I first met Kelly in 1985. When I went to work at kettle restaurant in marlsville, he was this sweet lady, he always helped me figure out my tips, I'm not very good at math and she was always willing to help me figure things out. She was a good friend. Just also a very good friend, my sister lori Pitchford, he has also passed away years ago. In Know she is OK now she is with fool board and then she's not suffering anymore. I will miss you killing my friend. Thank you for everything you did for me in being a blessing.In my life
