

Kenneth "Ken" Engleman

January 20, 1915 - December 10, 2014

Kenneth "Ken" Engleman passed away Wednesday, December 10, 2014, just 41 days short of his 100th birthday.

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, December 15, 2014 at Bartlesville First Church with Dr. Kevin Tully and Reverend Charles McCarthy officiating. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Walker-Brown Funeral Home.

Harold Kenneth Engleman was born January 20, 1915 in Mendon, MO to George and Beulah (Kreider) Engleman. Upon graduation from high school, Ken continued his education receiving a BS in Civil Engineering degree from Kansas State University. He married his college sweetheart, Waneta Sconiers, on December 24, 1937 in Marshall, TX. Ken was a longtime member of Bartlesville First United Methodist Church. He enjoyed music and loved singing in the church choir. His past time was spent with many activities which included chess, bridge, crossword puzzles, and golf.

Ken is survived by his children: Joe Engleman of Santa Monica, CA, John Engleman and wife Janie of LaQuinta, CA, Jan Price and husband Roger of Tulsa. He was blessed with three grandchildren: Mark Engleman and wife Kim, Amy Degiacomo and husband Mark, Lauren Price and great grandson John Diaz.

Ken was preceded in death by a grandson, Curtis Engleman, and his wife of 72 years, Waneta Engleman.

Ken will be remembered for his wit, intelligence, and encouragement toward others, always the “life of the party.” We loved you so much and will miss you, Dad and Grandpa!

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be sent to: Bartlesville First Church, 4715 SE Price Road, Bartlesville, OK 74006.
